Manhattan House, New York, NY

In this episode of Square Feet, Maureen Footer of the eponymous Maureen Footer Design takes us on a tour of a Grace Kelly inspired apartment at the Manhattan House on the Upper East Side. Billed as “Grand Modernism,” the Manhattan House enlisted Maureen’s expertise to design a model apartment with Grace Kelly, one of the building’s most famous former residents as her muse. With a blend of handcrafted luxury and retro-chic patterns, Maureen utilized the classical proportions in the living room and created a space that defines the word glamour. It’s the little touches, the well-designed balcony, the wine refrigerator, the romantic canopy bed, that give this place its charm.

Listed on the market for $2,500,000, check out the video to tour this 1,100 square feet apartment.
